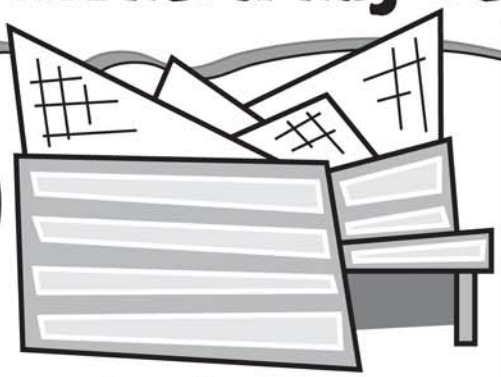
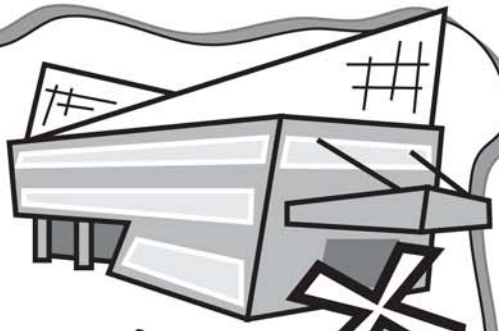
modern day sea monsters

TENNESSEE AQUARIUM



river journey (RJ)

Follow the map and fill in the answer to each riddle. As you go, take the letters in the bubbles and write them in the blanks below to discover the answer.



ocean journey (OJ)

Start searching here!

Many creatures living today are similar to sea creatures from long ago. For this reason these six animals could be called

◯I V◯◯G ◯O◯◯◯L◯

The end! Good job!

1 This reptile uses its powerful tail to silently move through the water.

AMERICAN A◯ ◯ T R

CLUE: RJ DELTA SWAMP, Level 3

6 This creature looks like a squid living in a spiral shell.

EMPEROR NA ◯ U◯

CLUE: OJ BONELESS BEAUTIES, Level 2

2 These fish are one of the largest freshwater fish living in the world today.

BELUGA TU G ◯

CLUE: RJ RIVERS OF THE WORLD, Level 2

5 This flippered animal has a shell and breathes air, but stays underwater a lot.

GREEN ◯ A UR E

CLUE: OJ SECRET REEF, Level 2

3 This fish was first identified as a shark. It uses its flat bill to find food.

P D E◯ S

CLUE: RJ NICKAJACK LAKE, Level 2

When you leave River Journey, cross the plaza to Ocean Journey to continue your hunt!

4 These touchable sharks lay two to three leathery eggs per week.

EPAULETTE ◯ K

CLUE: OJ TROPICAL COVE, Level 4

©2007 TENNESSEE AQUARIUM. VISIT WWW.TNAQUA.ORG.

ANSWERS: 1) ALLIGATOR 2) STURGEON 3) PADDLEFISH 4) SHARK 5) SEA TURTLE 6) NAUTILUS