

Senior Neighbors
of Chattanooga, Inc
with Downtown Attractions Presents:

Grand Winter Days!

Kick-off Celebration

Free Admission

When: Saturday, January 3, 2004

Where: Chattanooga Regional History Museum
401 Broad Street

Time: 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Entertainment

11:30 CSO Youth Orchestras Ensemble

12:30 Senior Neighbors Orchestra

1:30 Kids on the Block

2:30 Tom Morgan and Lynne Haas

Interactive activities for Grandparents and Grandchildren to share – from animals from the Aquarium, brass rubbings & rubber stamping, to creating snowflakes together. Refreshments will also be served, so stop by and enjoy the beginning of
Grand Winter Days!

Creative Discovery Museum

January 3 through 6, 2004

• FREE Admission Both Grandparent & Child

Enjoy the winter exhibit
Cool Wonders & Riverplay

Brought to you by Senior Neighbors

Hunter Museum of American Art

January 3, 4 & 6, 2004

• FREE Admission Both Grandparent & Child

Enjoy the Paper Sculpture exhibit and create your own paper sculpture!

Brought to you by Senior Neighbors

Chattanooga Regional

CRHM History Museum

January 3 through 6, 2004

• FREE Admission Both Grandparent & Child

Enjoy the Dinosaurs Plus exhibit!

Brought to you by Senior Neighbors

Tennessee Aquarium

January 3 through 6, 2004

Buy 1 Adult ticket ($14⁰⁰)
Get 1 Child ticket Free

Dive Into Winter with scheduled feeding dives and look for the real stars of Finding Nemo!

Brought to you by Senior Neighbors

Chattanooga African American Museum

200 East Martin Luther King Blvd.
Chattanooga, TN 37401

January 3, 5 and 6

• FREE Admission All Three Days

Brought to you by Senior Neighbors